LOOK AT THE TIME:
FUTURE BY TUDA MUDA

With the kind of year we've just had, the hope that the future will be better is high on everyone's mind. Echoing a similar feeling is this artwork about the always consistent and loyal sky that's full of possibilities. This acrylic on round canvas will make for a colourful addition to any space and is a definite front-runner on our guide.

FOR THE LOVE OF DOG

BENT CHAIR
PUG BOOKENDS

Know a bibliophile who also loves dogs? Here's your chance to gift them something personal but quirky at the same time. It could also serve well with a few books that need organising, or maybe they just need to be stacked in style. For those of you thinking that it looks like a small gift, trust us when we say it's sturdy enough for heavy, large-formatted books.

JAQUAR LIGHTING FLOOR LAMP

We've always said that lighting can make or break the look of the room; but it's not just about the "light" that it throws. It's also about the aesthetic appeal it adds even when not in use. A floor lamp is the easiest way to glamourise a space – well, a chandelier is the easiest way, but gifting a floor lamp is more practical. So pick something like this one that also exudes a studio-like vibe.
